

Charles Thomas Long

1056 Leigh Mill Road
Great Falls, VA 22066
(703) 759-4255
tomlong@gwu.edu

Education

The George Washington University, Ph. D. 2005

Dissertation Title: “Green Water Revolution: The War for American Independence on the Waters of the Southern Chesapeake Theater”

Co-Directors: Ronald H. Spector and Elizabeth A. Fenn

Committee: William H. Becker (Chair), Richard B. Stott, David Silverman, and Michael Crawford (Naval Historical Center)

Fields and Examiners: Military and Naval History – Dr. Ronald H. Spector; Colonial and Early American History – Dr. Elizabeth A. Fenn; Early Modern England – Dr. Linda Levy Peck; and American Legal History – Dr. Robert J. Cottrol

Folger Institute Center for the History of British Political Thought, Seminar: The Foundations of Modern International Thought, 1494-1713, chaired by Professor David Armitage, Spring 2002.

Harvard Law School J.D. (cum laude) 1970

Dartmouth College, Mathematics, A.B. 1965

Languages: French (Reading Comprehension and limited conversation)
Russian (Reading Comprehension)

Computer Skills: Access, PowerPoint, Excel, Word, Blackboard

Employment History

Research Professor of History, July 2022 – Present, Teach History 3044W(10) (spring semester 2023) conduct research for the Albert H. Small Normandy Institute. Coordinate Alumni Trip for The Price of Freedom: Normandy 1944 for the 80th Anniversary of the D-Day Invasion.

Assistant Professor of History and Director of Undergraduate Studies, The George Washington University, August 2018 – June 2022 (Coordinator of Undergraduate Advising August 2010-August 2018): teach undergraduate military and naval history courses, “The U.S. and the Wars in Indochina, 1945-1975,” U.S. Constitutional History, seminars in the “American Revolution,” “The Age of Sail,” “The World Wars of the Twentieth Century,” and “The Price of Freedom: Normandy 1944” (undergraduate seminar which, in addition to all normal classroom activities, conduct an eight-day “staff ride” tour of the Normandy Campaign over spring break); coordinate departmental advising for approximately 150 undergraduates; and teach graduate seminars in “Naval History,” the “Age of Sail,” “Normandy, Sacrifice for Freedom,” and “World War II (Europe)”.

Academic Director of The Albert H. Small Normandy Institute, January 2011-June 2013 and January 2018 – Present.

Director, "The Albert H. Small Student/Teacher Institute: Normandy: Sacrifice for Freedom," January – June 2011, January – June 2012, and January – June 2013.

Assistant Professorial Lecturer, The George Washington University, Summer 2005 – Spring 2010: American History Survey (both halves, History 1310 and 1320 – small class and lecture course for 225); America to 1763 (History 3302); Revolutionary America (History 3303); America and the Wars in Indochina, 1945-1975 (History 3033); Senior Thesis (History 4098W); graduate seminar, Readings in Naval History from Salamis to Vietnam (History 6001); and a graduate reading and research seminar in Strategy and Policy (History 6032).

Lecturer, St. Mary's College, Maryland, Fall 2005 – Fall 2006: American Civilization (three semesters (History 200)); American Military History (two semester series, History 415); Legacy of Western World, 1450-1945 (History 105); and an independent study course in American Legal History.

Teaching Fellow, The George Washington University, Spring Semester 2005: American History since 1876 (History 72), American Military History (History 101), and Senior Thesis (History 199).

The George Washington University, Assistant Professorial Lecturer, Summer Semesters 2003 and 2004: History 230, Graduate Reading and Research Seminar in Strategy and Policy.

The George Washington University, Graduate Teaching Assistant, History Department August 1999 – June 2002: (Courses: History of America to 1877 and History of America from 1876 to the Present)

Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue (Law Partner), August 1985 – December 1998: general practice of corporate, securities, and banking law (Retired December 31, 1998)

Federal Home Loan Bank Board, January 1984 - August 1985: Deputy General Counsel for Policy and Corporate Structure; Staff participant on the Vice President's Task Force on the Regulation of Financial Institutions

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, June 1970 - December 1983: (Partner from January 1978): Los Angeles offices from 1970 to 1979; District of Columbia office from 1980 through 1983. General corporate practice involving securities offerings, mergers and acquisitions, securities litigation, international corporate transactions, and financial institution structural and regulatory matters

Dechert, Price & Rhoads, June - August 1969: Law Firm Summer Associate

United States Navy Temporary active duty: Tactics Instructor, Naval Officer Candidate School, Newport, Rhode Island, June - August 1968

United States Navy Active duty, July 1965 - September 1967: officer of the deck (fleet operations) guided missile cruiser, U.S.S. Springfield (CLG 7), flagship, United States Sixth Fleet

Appointments and Recognition

- George Washington Award, the 41st annual faculty prize, presented by President Stephen Knapp of The George Washington University, May 21, 2017
- Columbian College Faculty Speaker for 2017 Commencement Celebration, nominated by students and selected by CCAS leadership, May 20, 2017
- Dean's Fellows in Globalization Faculty, "The Price of Freedom: Normandy 1944," January – May 2014, January – May 2015, and January – May 2016
- Columbian College of Arts and Science Undergraduate Department Advising Award for academic year 2011 - 2012
- Fellowship and grant to participate in the 2009 West Point Summer Seminar on Military History, administered by the Department of History, United States Military Academy
- Grant from the Harvard University International Seminar on the History of the Atlantic World, 1500 – 1825, directed by Bernard Bailyn and conducted under the auspices of the Charles Warren Center for Studies in American History and supported by the Andrew Mellon Foundation to defray all expenses of participation in the 2008 seminar on "The Atlantic as a Theater of War"
- Teaching Fellowship, The George Washington University, 2005
- Distinguished Teaching Assistant Award, The George Washington University 2001-02
- University Fellowship, The George Washington University, 1999 - 2002
- Outstanding Service Award, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, 1984
- Ex Officio Member of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Advisory Council, 1988 and 1989 (The Council was a statutory body to advise the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on matters of policy.)
- Listed in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in American Law, 1999 - 2009
- Principal of the Council for Excellence in Government, 1992 - 2008
- Cum Laude* award of Juris Doctor Degree, Harvard University, 1970

Teaching Experience

- Undergraduate Courses: American History Survey (both halves, classes of 40 and 250, with teaching assistants), American Civilization; American Military History (one-semester survey); Military History (two-semester series), Naval History (two-semester series), Legacy of the Western World, Colonial America, Revolutionary America, The United States and the Conflicts in Southeast Asia from 1945 to 1975, U.S. Constitutional History, The World Wars of the 20th Century, The Age of Sail, and Senior Thesis. Courses incorporate lecture (with PowerPoint), discussion, and Blackboard. Some incorporate podcasts recorded outside of the classroom for posting to BlackBoard and viewing by students as homework – to permit use of class time for discussion of topics covered in podcast.
- Undergraduate Experiential Learning Course: "The Price of Freedom: Normandy 1944" is a four-credit, writing intensive undergraduate and graduate seminar in which, in addition to all normal classroom activities, students participate in an eight-day "staff ride" tour of the Normandy Campaign over spring break. Students write four papers (a book review, a briefing paper, a critical analysis essay, and a biography), watch 26 lectures, watch and discuss 14 films, and participate in 14 discussion sessions. In the most important assignment, students research a soldier from their hometown and write a biography based on information from the community and archival sources as well as interviews. They then present a eulogy for their soldier while standing at his (or her) graveside in the American Cemetery at Omaha Beach. The course satisfies three General Education requirements for the Columbian College (critical analysis, global perspective, and oral communication) and is a writing-intensive course.

Graduate Seminars:

Strategy and Policy (George Washington University, History 6032) is a graduate seminar. The course is a survey of military and naval history from 1494 to the present, based on readings from Peter Paret's Makers of Modern Strategy, Clausewitz, Mahan, Jomini, Russell Weigley's American Way of War, the Oxford History of Modern Warfare, Geoffrey Parker's The Military Revolution, Jeremy Black's War and the World, and extracts from the treaties of Westphalia, Utrecht, Paris (1763, 1783, and 1954) and Versailles. Students analyze critical strategic decisions of recent conflicts. The course includes both discussion and lectures that incorporate PowerPoint presentations.

Readings in Naval History from Salamis to Vietnam reviews classic writings in naval history, such as Mahan's Influence of Sea Power upon History, 1660-1783; Corbett's Some Principles of Naval Warfare; Guilmartin's Gunpowder and Galleys; Theodore Roosevelt's Naval War of 1812; Garrett Mattingly's The Armada; Nicholas Rodger's The Command of the Ocean: A Naval History of Britain, 1649-1815; Evans and Peatie's Kaigun, Strategy, Tactics, and Technology in the Imperial Japanese Navy, 1887 – 1941; Spector's Eagle against the Sun, and others.

Reading seminar in "The Age of Sail – The Influence of Sea Power Upon History" discussing major readings in naval history, including: A.T. Mahan, The Influence of Sea Power Upon History, 1660-1783; Sir Julian Corbett, Some Principles of Maritime Strategy; Bernard S. Capp, Cromwell's Navy: The Fleet and the English Revolution, 1648-1660; Glyndwr Williams, The Prize of All the Oceans: The Dramatic True Story of Commodore Anson's Voyage Round the World and How He Seized the Spanish Treasure Galleon; Jonathan R. Dull, The French Navy and the Seven Years' War, France Overseas; Nicholas A. M. Rodger, The Wooden World, an Anatomy of the Georgian Navy and The Command of the Ocean: A Naval History of Britain, 1649-1815; Piers Mackesy, The War for America, 1775 - 1783. 1993; Ira D. Gruber, The Howe Brothers and the American Revolution; Evan Thomas, John Paul Jones Sailor, Hero, Father of the American Navy; Alan Schom, Trafalgar: Countdown to Battle, 1803-1805; and Ian W. Toll, Six Frigates: The Epic History of the Founding of the U.S. Navy.

Readings and Research Seminar in the Normandy Campaign analyzes the conduct and consequences of the D-Day Invasion and the ensuing Normandy Campaign, focusing on the following readings: John Keegan, The Second World War; John Lucaks, The Duel: 10 May - 31 July 1940, the Eighty Day Struggle between Churchill and Hitler; Dwight D. Eisenhower, Crusade in Europe; Roger Fleetwood Hesketh, Fortitude: The D-Day Deception Campaign; Christopheher D. Yung, Gators of Neptune: Naval Amphibious Planning for the Normandy Invasion; Stephen Ambrose, Band of Brothers: E Company, 506th Regiment, 101st Airborne from Normandy to Hitler's Eagle's Nest. New York; Alex Kershaw, The Bedford Boys: One American Town's Ultimate D-Day Sacrifice; Antony Beevor, D-Day: The Battle for Normandy; Joseph Balkoski, Omaha Beach: D-Day, June 6, 1944 or Utah Beach: The Amphibious Landing and Airborne Operations on D-Day, June 6, 1944; R. J. Overy, Why the Allies Won; Alfred Stanford, Force Mulberry: The Planning and Installation of the Artificial Harbor Off U.S. Normandy Beaches in World War II; Studs Terkel, "The Good War": An Oral History of World War Two; Marie-Louise Osmont, The Normandy Diary of Marie-Louise Osmont: 1940-1944; James Jay Carafano, After D-Day: Operation Cobra & the Normandy Breakout; and Julian Jackson, France: The Dark Years, 1940-1944.

Readings and Research Seminar on World War II analyzes the underlying causes, the conduct of the war, and its consequences, focusing on the following readings: Atkinson, Rick. The Guns at Last Light: The War in Western Europe, 1944-1945. The Liberation Trilogy. New York: Henry Holt and Co., 2013; Beevor, Antony. D-Day: The Battle for Normandy. 1st American ed. New York: Viking, 2009; Blum, John Morton. V Was for Victory: Politics and American Culture During World War II. San Diego, CA: A Harvest Book, Harcourt Brace & Company, 1976; Eubank, Keith. World War II, Roots and Causes. Second ed. Lexington, MA: D.C. Heath and Company, 1992; Goldhagen, Daniel Jonah. Hitler's Willing Executioners. First Vintage Press ed. New York: Vintage Press, 1997; Howard, Michael. British Intelligence in the Second World War. History of the Second World War; Variation: History of the Second World War. London: H.M.S.O., 1990; Iriye, Akira. Pearl Harbor and the Coming of the Pacific War: A Brief History with Documents and Essays. The Bedford Series in History and Culture;. Boston: Bedford/St. Martin's, 1999; Lukacs, John. Five Days in London: May 1940. New Haven, Ct: Yale University Press, 1999; Meacham, Jon. Franklin and Winston: An Intimate Portrait of an Epic Friendship. New York: Random House, 2003; Overy, R. J. The Bombers and the Bombed: Allied Air War over Europe, 1940-1945. New York, New York: Viking, 2014; Spector, Ronald H. At War at Sea, Sailors and Naval Warfare in the Twentieth Century. New York: Viking, 2001; Spector, Ronald H. Eagle against the Sun: The American War with Japan. New York: The Free Press, 1985; and Thomas, Evan. Sea of Thunder: Four Commanders and the Last Great Naval Campaign, 1941-1945. New York: Simon & Schuster, 2006. The students are to conduct research in primary sources including, but not limited to those at the National Archives in College Park sufficient to permit them to write a biography of a soldier from the student's home town who is buried in one of the American Cemeteries abroad.

As a Graduate Teaching Assistant for three years, I conducted discussion groups for approximately 400 students in sections ranging from two to over thirty members. I assisted in teaching the second half of the American History Survey (1876 to the Present, History 72) four times, for three members of the faculty. I also assisted twice in teaching the first half of the American History Survey (from before first contact to 1877, History 71). I supervised discussion and provided lectures that incorporated PowerPoint Presentations.

Historical Paper Presentations and Lectures

- 2018 The George Washington University, Columbian College of Arts and Sciences First Night, Keynote Speaker: August 2018 George Washington's Mount Vernon.
The Marshall Center, U.S. Embassy, Paris: March 2018, "Politics and Planning: George Marshall in the Early Years"
- 2017 The Marshall Center, U.S. Embassy, Paris: March 2017, "An 'Interesting' Trio: Marshall, Eisenhower, and Patton"
- 2016 Dartmouth Lifelong Learning Travel Course: The Normandy Campaign: June 4 – June 13 "The Price of Freedom: Normandy 1944" course for 26 adults taught in England and France.
The Marshall Center, U.S. Embassy, Paris: March 2016, "George C. Marshall Juggler of Egos: His role in Operation Overlord"
- 2015 the 2015 McMullen Naval History Symposium, at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland: September 17, 2015 "Water, Water Everywhere . . . : The Problem of Logistics in the 1775-1776 Campaign in the Chesapeake" (Presented on CSPAN2 and videotaped for rebroadcast)
- 2014 The Marshall Center, U.S. Embassy, Paris: March 2014, "George C. Marshall and the Normandy Invasion"
- 2008 Harvard International Seminar on the History of the Atlantic World, 1500 – 1825: The Atlantic as a Theater of War, Cambridge, Massachusetts, August 2008: "Britain's Green Water Navy – the Royal Navy in the Chesapeake Bay during the American Revolution."
- 2007 Naval History Symposium, October 2007, Annapolis, Maryland: "Britain's Green Water Navy in the Revolutionary Chesapeake: Long-Range Asymmetric Warfare in the Littoral."
- Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the Western Conference on British Studies, October 20-21, 2000, Denver, Colorado: "Samuel Pepys, Devoted Theatergoer: Faithful Client, Luxury Consumer or Ambitious Businessman?"
- American Revolution Round Table of Washington, D.C., December 5, 2007, Fort Myer Officers' Club, Arlington, Virginia: "The Green Water Revolution: Naval Action in the Southern Chesapeake Theater."

Publication

"Britain's Green Water Navy in the Revolutionary Chesapeake: Long-Range Asymmetric Warfare in the Littoral." International Journal of Naval History, Vol.

8, No. 2, August 2009.

http://www.ijnhonline.org/volume8_number2_%20Aug09/pdf/article_long.pdf

Published Materials dealing with Legal Issues¹

“Regulatory Outlook – Would Congress's New Proposal for Regulatory Consolidation Increase Efficiency?” Vol. 8, No. 5 Bank Accounting & Finance (Spring 1995).

Historical Papers

“The British Royal Navy’s Green Water Revolution:

The Influence of History upon Sea Power or Too Big, Too Late”

Harvard University Seminar on the History of the Atlantic World – The Atlantic as a Theater of War, 1500-1825, August 2008.

“Britain’s Green Water Navy in the Revolutionary Chesapeake:

Long-Range Asymmetric Warfare in the Littoral”

2007 Naval History Symposium, United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland, 21 September 2007.

“Samuel Pepys, Devoted Theatergoer: Faithful Client, Luxury Consumer or Ambitious Businessman?”

Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the Western Conference on British Studies, October 20-21, 2000, Denver, Colorado.

Legal Professional Lectures²

Banking Law Institute, (Executive Enterprises, Inc.) (hereafter "BLI"), Community Development Bank Act and Interstate Branching: Implementation, Compliance, and Risk Management Strategies for Banks and Thrifts, November 29-30, 1994, Washington, DC: "Financial Disclosure Issues for Consideration by Financial Institutions and Their Affiliates"

Professional Historical Associations

American Historical Association

Society for Military History

Organization of American Historians

Navy Records Society, London, England

Supreme Court Historical Society

United States Naval Institute, Annapolis, MD

Life Member Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum, St. Michaels, MD

Friends of the National Maritime Museum, Greenwich, England

Bar Memberships

California Supreme Court - 1971

United States District Court for the Central District of California - 1971

¹ A list of seventeen articles on legal topics provided on request. They include continuing legal education materials, which are often based on earlier texts on the same topics, revised to address developments in the changing legal and business environment.

² A list of fifty-eight lectures on legal topics will be provided on request. The lectures are identified as follows: Program Sponsor, Program or Lecture Title, Date, Location: "My Course Materials Distributed or Published." Unless a separate lecture title is given, the title of the distributed materials is also the title of my presentation.

United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit - 1975
District of Columbia Court of Appeals - 1980
United States District Court for the District of Columbia - 1980
United States Court of Federal Claims - 1996

Legal Associations

District of Columbia Bar Association
American Bar Association

References:

Provided on request.